Aaron Buntrock President at CMS Inc.

Aaron Buntrock and Martin Smith will be doing a free presentation for CIM members on April 29, 2017. The topic is Project Clarity-Integrated Project Control.

“CMS Inc. is a project services company entering its 30th year. Over that time, we have contributed to projects in many industrial, commercial, and institutional sectors. We have consistently been appraised as providing “best-in-class” services by independent review and benchmarking organizations.

Over the years we have consistently made a positive impact on project delivery for our clients. On most assignments we save our clients more than our fee. We do this by taking a different approach to project controls; one that removes the silos”
